

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT KNOXVILLE

ANDREW JOSTEN LOVINGOOD,

Plaintiff,

v.

No. 3:19-cv-00009

BILL JOHNSON, DERRICK GRAVES;

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION IN LIMINE NO. 4

This case was originally filed by attorney John Eldridge April 9, 2015. Judge Poplin was then the Clerk of Court. Attorney Eldridge voluntarily dismissed the case without prejudice.

In the interim, Mr. Lovingood sought to impose criminal liability upon this Defendant and the same was rejected by a jury in the Circuit Court for Monroe County, Tennessee and this Defendant was acquitted of all charges.

Nevertheless, Plaintiff refiled a federal district court civil action January 5, 2019.

The Scheduling Order entered May 26, 2020 20 [Doc. 22] required Plaintiff to submit expert disclosures on or before August 3, 2020, some six years after the alleged incident. He never has.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26 is specific. Plaintiff cannot submit any form of evidence at trial which requires or must be supported by expert testimony.(emphasis added)

Testimony regarding Plaintiff's alleged medical/mental condition falls within the realm of expert opinion and the appropriate disclosures pursuant to Fed. Rule Civ. Pro. 26 should have been made. They have not. Accordingly, this Defendant respectfully requests that Motion in Limine 4 be granted.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 15th day of November, 2021.
